

2011

I Am We Founded

I Am We was formed with a goal of inspiring Chicago through meaningful storytelling that breaks community isolation.

2012

Community Engagement

I Am We launched Chicago's Unsung Heroes: The Traveling Photography and Audio Exhibition to inspire and introduce youth to everyday citizens, who are making a difference. We did this entirely without any private funding.

2013

Partnerships

I Am We fostered partnerships with the Photography Center, South Side Arts Center, Columbia College, Goodcity, as well as other institutions and community organizations.

2014

Interactive
Media
Programs

I Am We developed interactive communications/digital media programs to stimulate learning. Our programs give youth a safe haven to be heard, and build bridges between youth and community.

2015

Raising Awareness

I Am We launched an initiative to raise awareness about the high-school 1 in 3 disparity in Chicago's most underserved neighborhoods. Formed an effective Associate Board. Provided STEAM based programming for adolescent in need through community partnerships.
